

The 2nd Annual Cherokee Art Market

When: October 13, 14 & 15, 2007
Time: 10am to 5pm (both days)
Where: Cherokee Casino Resort - 2100
1-848 Main, Exit 200A

The finest Native American artwork will be displayed at the 2nd Annual Cherokee Art Market Oct. 13 and Oct. 14, 2007 at the luxurious Cherokee Casino Resort in Tulsa, Okla. To kick off the weekend event, a gala dinner will be held Friday, Oct. 12, 2007 in honor of the prize winners.

The Cherokee Art Market brings together an elite group of Native American artists to display and sell their work. Two hundred influential Native American artists from across the nation will be featured at the event. In addition to fine artwork displayed at the Cherokee Art Market, the event will offer a Free Shuttle to a "Tour of Tulsa" that will include both the Philbrook Art Museum and the Ulmerson Museum of Art so that attendees can view additional Native American Art exhibits.

During the show and sale, Cherokee Art Market guests will experience a bounty of excitement and colorful activities at Cherokee Casino Resort. They'll enjoy exhilarating casino games, a relaxing stay in a beautifully appointed hotel room, see live at a championship golf course, delicious food at five restaurants and live music at three entertainment venues.

Guests are welcome to stay at the Cherokee Casino Resort or the Cherokee Casino Inn. To make reservations, call (800) 748-7300 and mention the special room rate code 0880107_00A, subject to availability.
