

Seed Exchange

Cherokee Nation's Natural Resources Department staff has been obtaining and growing a variety of heirloom Cherokee plants. The Natural Resources Department has an extremely limited number of seeds to give to citizens so they can grow their own Cherokee history.

Download the flyer below for details on the seed exchange program and information on how to request seeds.

http://www.cherokee.org/docs/publicnotices/seed_exchange.pdf